DISTRETTO DI POLIZIA 5 (Police District 5)

Series, 26 x 60mins

Tuesday at 9pm

Begins September 2, 2008

Life in a police precinct, where the private and professional lives of a group of men and women overlap, is ruffled with the unexpected arrival of a female inspector, Giulia Corsi. Giulia is a young woman who has declared war on crime; she is a woman of action but hides the suffering in her private life, which she is only able to share with her sister Sabina. This is her first appointment as inspector, and she finds herself with a group of officers who work as a team, and who can perhaps fill the void left by the family she has lost. With a new inspector in charge of the precinct, working life and investigations mesh with the sometimes dramatic and even amusing personal affairs of this very human team of defenders of law and order.

UN CICLONE IN FAMIGLIA 2 (Family Storm 2)

Series – 6 x 120 mins

Wednesdays at 8pm

Begins December 2, 2008

Why should the destiny of the northern Italian middle-class Fumagalli family meet with the animated southern Dominici family? A random encounter, in a park in North America, starts up the extraordinary and, at times, forced cohabitation of the two small families. Lorenzo Fumagalli does not know that his daughter Ludovica is in love with Alessio, the son of Alberto Dominici, an intrusive and clingy man. There is a wedding in the midst and the two families must work through their differences.

CARABINIERI 6 (Women's Duty 6)

Series – 26 x 60mins

Mondays at 9pm

Begins March 2, 2008

A comedy series packed with entertaining, romantic, and fun incidents. Paola Vitali is the first woman ever to join the Carabinieri, Italy's largest, traditionally all-male police force. At the Città Della Pieve Carabinieri Station, Paola has the chance to prove to herself and others that she has what it takes to be amongst them. Police chief Palermo gives her a hard time right from the start, although behind his tough exterior, he hides his true feelings for her.
